

INDUSTRIAL DIRECTORY OF NEW JERSEY.

157

The Felter Brothers Company, manufacturers of shoes; employs 16 persons.

E. E. Hogan Shoe Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of shoes; employs 174 persons.

Johnston & Murphy, manufacturers of boots and shoes; employ 475 persons.

Smith & Linnet Shirt Company, manufacturers of shirts, collars and cuffs; employs 95 persons.

C. Edgar Sutphen Company, manufacturers of shirts; employs 54 persons.

Alex. W. Shiner, manufacturer of boys' and ladies' waists; employs 72 persons.

William Crabb & Company, manufacturers of mill supplies; employs 73 persons.

The Merrill Brothers Company, manufacturers of silver novelties; employs 24 persons.

Scharling & Company, manufacturers of silver deposit ware; employs 21 persons.

Tiffany & Company, manufacturers of silverware and silver-plated ware; employs 658 persons.

John W. Redall & Company, manufacturers of silverware; employs 45 persons.

Schmitz Moore & Company, manufacturers of silver novelties; employs 49 persons.

LaPierre Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of deposit and toilet ware; employs 110 persons.

Henry L. Leibe Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of silverware and novelties; employs 16 persons.

John E. Oertner & Company, manufacturers of pocketbook mountings; employs 7 persons.

Woodside Sterling Company, manufacturers of silverware and novelties; employs 63 persons.

Balback Smelting and Refining Company, gold, silver, copper and lead ore; employs 515 persons.

The James N. Arbuckle Company, manufacturers of tallow; employs 7 persons.

Burns Iron Works, manufacturers of structural iron; employs 11 persons.

Frederick Goeller, manufacturer of structural iron; employs 20 persons.

Hay Foundry and Iron Works, manufacturers of structural iron; employs 295 persons.

C. C. Lienau, manufacturer of structural iron; employs 16 persons.

Albert Smith's Sons, manufacturers of structural iron; employ 15 persons.

Benjamin Atha & Company, manufacturers of steel castings; employs 516 persons.

George Healy, manufacturer of general forgings; employs 7 persons.

S. I. Meeker, manufacturer of malleable iron; employs 125 persons.